That Council receives the Monthly Financial Statements for the period 1 July 2020 to 31 August 2020 as provided in Attachment Booklet – September 2020.

OFFICE OF CEO	CEO01-09/20
Subject:	CEO01-09/20 Local Law Delegations – Council to CEO
Author:	Y Robb, Process Improvement Coordinator
Responsible Officer:	S Ivers, Chief Executive Officer
File Reference:	3.0219
Voting Requirements:	Absolute Majority

Council Role:

- Advocacy When Council advocates on its own behalf or on behalf of its community to another level of government/body/agency.
- Executive The substantial direction setting and oversight role of the Council e.g. adopting plans and reports, accepting tenders, directing operations, setting and amending budgets.
- Legislative Includes adopting local laws, local planning schemes and policies.
- Review When Council reviews decisions made by Officers.
- Quasi-judicial When Council determines an application/matter that directly affects a person's rights and interests. The judicial character arises from the obligation to abide by the principles of natural justice e.g. local planning applications, building permits, other permits/licences (e.g. under Health Act, Dog Act or local laws) and other decisions that may be appealable to the State Administrative Tribunal (SAT).

Report Purpose:

For Council to adopt the new Local Law Delegations, provided as Attachment 1, and allow them to be incorporated into the Delegations Register - Council to CEO (the 'Register').

Background:

To delegate is to appoint another person to exercise a power or discharge a duty. A delegation does not strip the person making the delegation of the right to exercise the delegated power or discharge the delegated duty. Local Governments are required to keep a register of delegations and to review the delegations at least once every financial year, as per the Local Government Act 1995 s5.18 and s5.46.

At the 28 July 2020 Ordinary Council Meeting, Council reviewed and adopted the new Delegations Register – Council to CEO, the Local Law Delegations were not included in the initial adopted Delegations Register as they are still under review.

Officer's Comment:

It was identified that there is a larger process in regards to reviewing the Local Law delegations, the Local Laws themselves require review in accordance with Council Decision 200316 to commence the process for replacing most of the Local Laws in accordance with section 3.12 of the Local Government Act 1995.

Therefore, it is considered better practice to adopt the following delegations to ensure compliance for Council and staff until a full review of the Local Laws is conducted. This review will provide an in depth understanding of the Local Laws and how it reflects through delegations. These new Council to CEO delegations will ensure compliance and provide a streamlined project to review the Local Laws in their entirety.

The new Local Law Delegations contain a total of twelve Council to CEO delegations classified under the Local Government Act 1995:

- CEO1000 – Activities on Thoroughfares and Trading in Thoroughfares and Public Places Local Law 2000

- CEO1001 – Bush Fire Brigades Local Law
- CEO1002 – Cemeteries Local Law 2000
- CEO1003 – Dogs Local Law
- CEO1004 – Extractive Industries Local Law 2000
- CEO1005 – Health Local Laws 2002
- CEO1006 – Local Government Property Local Law
- CEO1007 – Local Law Relating to Signs, Hoarding and Bill Posting
- CEO1008 – Local Laws Relating to Fencing
- CEO1009 – Meeting Procedures Local Law 2016
- CEO1010 – Parking and Parking Facilities Local Law 2000
- CEO1011 – Prevention and Abatement of Sand Drift Local Law 2004

The Local Law Delegations - Council to CEO will be uploaded into Integrity Attain compliance software which will be accessible by Councillors and Staff in due course. This will ensure they are included in the Shire's Delegations Register which is reviewed before 30 June each year in accordance with section 5.46 of the Local Government Act 1995. The Attain software will be used to maintain the Register throughout the year, after which a summary will be presented to Council for review and adoption.

Consultation:

Staff have developed the new Local Law Delegations in line with WALGA's delegations register template.

At the 28 July 2020 Ordinary Council Meeting, Council reviewed and adopted the new Delegations Register – Council to CEO, the Planning and Development Delegations were not included in the initial adopted Delegations Register as they were still under review.

Officer’s Comment:

The in-depth review of the Planning and Development Delegations – Council to CEO is now complete. The Shire’s previous delegations for planning were blanket delegations with reduced detail, therefore making interpretation difficult.

The new Planning and Development Delegations contain a total of six Council to CEO delegations classified under the following legislation:

- Local Government Act 1995
 - Local Planning Scheme 5
- Planning and Development Act 2005
 - Planning and Development Regulations 2009
 - Liquor Control Act 1988
 - Strata Titles Act 1985 Delegations

These new delegations will allow clarity for both Council and the delegate in relation to the specific powers or duties being delegated, limitations on delegation and Council conditions, therefore ensuring compliance. It also provides guidance on associated subsidiary legislation, related policies and sub-delegation.

The Planning and Development Delegations - Council to CEO will be uploaded into Integrity Attain compliance software which will be accessible by Councillors and Staff in due course. This will ensure they are included in the Shire's Delegations Register which is reviewed before 30 June each year in accordance with section 5.46 of the Local Government Act 1995. Background:

Review of existing Council policies continues in line with the recent adoption of the new Register of Delegations – Council to CEO at the 25 August 2020 Ordinary Council Meeting.

Staff are reviewing existing policies and identify whether they are required as Council policies and check that they align with legislation. If a policy is required, staff redevelop them using a new format to provide clarity and ensure compliance, before presenting to Council for adoption.

Officer's Comment:

Several existing Council policies have been identified as being superfluous and are therefore recommended for deletion from the Council Policy Manual.

The following policies are considered operational and therefore not required as Council policies. The topics in the policies will be reviewed and covered in Management Policies:
