Hi there my name is Hayley Palmer, General Manager for Illegal Tender Rum Co & Deputy Chair for the MidWest Development Commission. Im a mother, property owner in the Shire of Irwin aswell as keen netball player for the Dongara Eagles.

Im running again for council as I believe the work we have done over the last 4 years, has ensured our town thrives under economic uncertainty.

Through the roles above, I do possess and have a strong understanding of strategic thinking, Innovative Ideas, Communication, Environmental Awareness and Adaptability.

I firmly believe that small towns like ours, can thrive, when they showcase their natural beauty and rich culture to the world. Its not just about economic growth; its about preserving the pristine environment for our kids and their kids. Our town is a treasure and Im committed to make decisions that ensure that its charm stays that way for generations to come.
